Research Protocols, Information and Documentation

In the download section of the congress website <http://archaeometrie.sbg.ac.at/downloads.html> we provide a platform detailing research methods, sample collection guidelines and standardized forms and documents. To reflect the diversity of individual disciplines, institutions and laboratories, we are pleased to provide a common internet platform for customized documents from various scientific institutions. Please submit relevant documents in electronic form (.doc, .pdf, .xls) to archaeometrie@sbg.ac.at. Current versions of relevant documentation will be published as an appendix to the Conference Proceedings, beginning with Vol. 3 of ARCHÆOPlus.
